Core Values \neq Drugs!

- Honor: Legendary Marines didn't need drugs to be successful, and neither do you.
- Marines will be given a urinalysis upon arrival at SOI.
- Drug users will be caught and will be processed for discharge with an Other Than Honorable Discharge; what does this mean?
- Courage: You have endured to earn the title United States Marine. Do not abandon courage and throw away your accomplishments if "friends" pressure you to do drugs.
- Commitment: Trust your Marine ethos for it will guide you to future success. Stay true to your values.

Helpful Hints.....

- When traveling, keep Alphas in a garment bag.
- Report to Camp Geiger, which is aboard Marine Corps Air Station New River, in Service "A" Uniform.
- Once you arrive at SOI, you will change into the seasonal MCCUU uniform.
- Bring military glasses for training.
- Do not bring computers, TV's, or other items of high value.

Helpful Hints.....

- Do not start using tobacco products.
- Everyone lives in open squad bays.
- Bring 2 sets of appropriate civilian attire.
- MCT is 29 days and trains through weekends; ITB is 59 days. You may be granted liberty on Sat & Sun.

Helpful Hints.....

- The Bus Station is about 4 miles from Base; take a taxi.
- Average price for a taxi ride from Jacksonville airport is $25-$35.
- If you show up earlier PLEASE check in early in order to save MONEY.
- Watch out for hotel scams (i.e. free ride to hotel, price of room increased).
